

Of Interest To Women.

Design by May Mantion.

DOTTED VEILING WITH FANCY BRAID.

BLOUSE ETON 4692.

CIRCULAR SKIRT 4693.

Veilings in all weights are greatly in vogue for street costumes and are also for mild weather wear. This one is champagne color dotted with a slight darker shade and is trimmed with one of the many ornamental braids of the season. The blouse is peculiarly effective, made with a deep cape collar and sleeves, but the collar can be omitted whenever a plainer garment is desired. The skirt is one of the latest and is circular with graduated tucks that give becoming and graceful flare about the feet. To make the blouse for a woman of medium size would require 4 yards 27, 2 1/2 yards 44 or 2 3/4 yards 52 inches wide; to make the skirt 5 1/2 yards 27, 4 yards 44 or 3 1/2 yards 52 inches wide. A May Mantion pattern of blouse No. 4692, sizes 32 to 40, or of skirt 4693, sizes 22 to 30, will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of 10 cents.

MUST REMOVE THE GARBAGE AND FILTH

City Has No Authority to Perform the Work Except When the Council Orders It Done.

If an epidemic of smallpox or other contagious diseases would be averted, it is up to the citizens of Salt Lake themselves to look after filthy refuse and germ-producing garbage for there is no ordinance providing that the city remove such matter. Notwithstanding this fact, the Health department has twelve wagons engaged in hauling garbage and these are inadequate to keep the city in a sanitary condition. The old ordinance provided that the city remove certain kinds of garbage and since the repeal of the ordinance the practice of hauling garbage has been continued. At the present time there are twelve garbage wagons working for the city, eight regular and four extra ones, and still complaints by the score are made daily to the clerk of the Board of Health finding fault with the lax manner in which the garbage cans and boxes are overlooked.

Up to the People. The revised ordinances do not provide that the city shall haul any garbage at all. No provision is made for the city to employ garbage wagons nor teamsters to drive them and it is plainly the spirit of the ordinance that the residents bear directly the expense of keeping their premises in a sanitary condition. The classification of rubbish, garbage, etc., is given, the fees to be charged for the removal of garbage and the requirement that permits be secured for the removal of garbage and the requirement that permits be secured from the city to engage in the business are stated, but it is not the intention that the city do the work. Of the twelve wagons employed by the city six are kept busy in the paved district of the city and the remaining six find more than they can do in looking after the residence portion of the city. The people do not keep ashes separate from combustible material that is disposed of at the crematory and liquid refuse is mixed with everything else and it is expected that it all be hauled by the city. Demands are made for the city to remove leaves and all manner of trash, even to manure. The general impression seems to be that the city is to haul everything free of expense, and the Council, too, seems to have shared in this belief in authorizing the employment of garbage wagons without provision being made in the ordinances.

MARTIAL SPIRIT AWAKE IN MILL CREEK

Joy should prevail among the Jack-rabbits of Mill Creek over the arrest of Charles Jensen, who was taken to the county jail by Deputy Sheriff Charles Bell.

Jensen is 15 years old and is charged with the theft of three revolvers, 100 cartridges and a pocket watch, all belonging to Christina Nielsen, a neighbor. The boy admits that he took two revolvers and thirteen cartridges from the summer kitchen back of Mrs. Nielsen's house, but denies the pipe. He told Mr. Bell that he took the gun because he wanted to shoot Jackrabbits. Justice Rider of Mill Creek fixed the boy's bail at $100 and will give him a hearing next Thursday.

DOCTOR TRIED TO WARD OFF PARESIS

Realized That Dread Malady Affected His Mind, Settled His Affairs and Went to Insane Asylum.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Dr. Lorenzo J. Kohnstamm, a traveler, philosopher and physician of more than local reputation, is dead here at a hospital for the insane. Four years ago he suddenly retired from a practice yielding thousands of dollars yearly. He was a member of the medical societies of Paris, Vienna, Brussels and Berlin, and his strange action attracted considerable attention.

Removing with his family to another part of the city, the doctor disappeared from the society of even his most intimate friends. Two years later he called at Bellevue hospital, where he desired to become a patient. Then he explained his retirement. In 1900, he said, he had noticed symptoms of paresis in himself. Without informing any one, he began a careful study of his own case, which, having confirmed his own suspicions, led him to relinquish practice, with a hope that quiet living, exercise and freedom from all mental effort might help the ailment.

His heroic struggle was in vain and he desired to prepare for death, having settled all his affairs with the idea in view. The physician was transferred to Manhattan hospital, where he remained two years awaiting the end.

N. A. Miller, Tailor, 329-330 D. F. Walker building, imported and domestic goods for spring and summer.

New Receiver for Globe. TRENTON, N. J., April 19.—Vice-Chancellor Pitney today appointed Charles C. Black of Jersey City receiver for the Globe Securities company of New York. The company dealt in bonds and securities.

Henry L. Swarce, the complainant, places the company's liabilities at $296,909 and assets at $512,000.

SCROFULA

Swollen glands, tumors, whitening, sores, pustular or scaly skin eruptions, flabby muscles, brittle bones, weak digestion, emaciated, ill-nourished bodies, are some of the well-known earmarks of Scrofula. Scrofula is inherited. Parents too closely related by the ties of blood, or tainted with consumption or blood poison, may look for signs of Scrofula in their children. The middle-aged often have it, but children are the chief sufferers. Scrofula breaks down the vital forces, and the blood becomes so weak and poor that it does not nourish the body. The remedy in all scrofulous affections must be one that purifies the diseased blood, builds up the weak digestion, increases the appetite and gives new energy and strength to all life's forces. No medicine has won so much fame as a blood purifier as S. S. S., and its tonic effects upon the system are not equaled by any other remedy. It makes the weak, tainted blood rich and strong, and drives out of the circulation all tubercular deposits and morbid matter that cause the glandular swelling, sores, abscesses, tumors and other horrible symptoms that make Scrofula so dreaded and dangerous.

Cleveland, Ohio, August 11, 1903. I inherited Scrofula from my parents, and this means, of course, weak, impure blood, and a run-down, debilitated condition of the system. I have been under treatment of physicians for quite a period at different times, but their treatment did not do me anything like the good S. S. S. did last winter when I took it. It promoted appetite and digestion, gave strength and energy, built up the general health in every way, and in addition to being an excellent blood purifier, it adds to its success as a remedy for Scrofula. It did more for me than any thing I have used, and with pleasure I commend it to you. MRS. LOUISE COHEN, 122 Brownell St.
